

Procedure for answering parents questions or suggestions

It is the standard policy (or procedure) of the St. John's High School to respond to parents questions or suggestions within 48 hours either in writing or with a phone call from the appropriate school or district staff member.